TOTHE

READER.

Hese choice Books in the ensuing Catalogue were selected for the private use and Study of a Worthy Gentleman, of great Learning and Eminency, lately Deceased; and being fall into the hands of his Executors, who are obliged to make the best Improvement of them for the use and benefit of the Deceadant: Do therfore think good to expose the same to Sale by way of Auction, the method whereof is now so well known, that there needs no Prasace to explain the Design or Practise thereof, only to propose the manner and Conditions;

Which are as followeth.

I. This Auction will begin on Monday the 14th. day of February, at Madam Palmers House in Kirby-street Hatton Garden, over against the Carpenters Yard, exactly at Nine of the Clock in the Morning, and at two in the Afternoon; wherefore its desired that all Gentlemen who are desirous to Buy, will appear precisely at the Hours appointed.

II. That he who bids most is the Buyer, and if any manifest difference do arise which the Company cannot decide, then the same Book or Books shall be forthwith exposed a 2d. time.

III. That all the Books, according to the Catalogue (for ought we know) are perfect; but if any of them appear otherwise before they be taken away; the Buyer shall have his Choice of taking or leaving such imperfect Book or Books.

IV. That the Mony for the Book or Books bought, is to be paid by the Buyer within one Month after the Auction or Sale is ended, at the place aforesaid; where, upon payment thereof, the Book or Books bought shall be ready to be Delivered within the Month aforesaid.

Lastly, 'Tis desired, That those persons who design to Buy, would take the pains to inform themselves of the Condition and Editions of these Books at any time before the Sale begins.
